About our book...

Memories are made of this . . . the extra-curricular activities giving all the opportunity to occupy their minds and bodies; the faculty, whose patience, guidance and willingness to help will never be forgotten; and last but by no means least, our fellow students with whom we have grown and developed our personalities.

The Critic Staff has compiled, in the following pages, a pictorial review of our activities at Pinkerton Academy throughout our three years. We sincerely hope that this book will enable us to keep a vivid picture of these, our Academy years. Memories are made of this.

Alfred Farnham Conner

A visit from St. Nick

From that day in September when we entered P.A. as Sophomores, your never-failing good humor and cheery smile have seen us through the many trials and tribulations of our Academy days.

With your untiring energy, you generously gave much of your leisure time helping us with the many activities of our class, and listening to our problems.

In appreciation for the time, guidance, and understanding which you have so unselfishly given, we, the Class of 1959, dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Alfred Farnham Conner.

Our Principal speaks

Leisure Moments

Education should not be considered a process of pouring facts into a head so that a pupil may star on a quiz program. Instead it should give the youth a way of life and help him find his place within it. Instruction in Americanism, civic responsibility, self-discipline, and moral and social values teach the pupil to recognize his worth as an individual; to take pride in his work; to understand the rights of others, and to develop talents that will contribute to a better world.

Pinkerton Academy has tried to provide an opportunity for every individual to develop his intellect and talents so that he might be in a better position to serve his country and mankind.

We will always remember the many wonderful friends we have made during our three years at P.A. The good times we have had together will be a part of the unforgettable memories we have of our school.

FRIENDS TO REMEMBER

SENIORS

Highlights of Our Class

Our three years at Pinkerton have not exactly made history but they certainly have made many precious memories.

One of the first of our memories at Pinkerton was that of initiation, a humiliating experience, but, nevertheless, we recovered in time to enjoy the Sophomore Reception given by the Seniors.

We were eager to participate and we did—in football, basketball, cheering, interclass sports, Glee Club, and Choir. Before we knew it summer was here and time for a well-deserved vacation.

After a summer of fun, we returned in our new role as Juniors. Initiation of the sophomores was the first of our official duties. Then came class rings, followed by our Prom. Later we decided to try our hand at acting in "Cheaper by the Dozen," and learning Declamations. As we helped at commencement exercises, we realized that, before long, we, too, would be leaving Pinkerton.

When we came back to school, via the front steps, as Seniors, there were many notable changes to greet us. A beauty treatment on the interior of the Haynes House had transformed that venerable home into an ultra-modern cafeteria and a Home Economics Department which are the pride of the school. The ground was broken around the old tennis court and gave promise of a beautiful, new library for the Class of 1960. Furthermore, two additional teachers had been added to the Faculty as proof of the fact that we are eager to learn. With these as inspirations we decided to make this our very best year at Pinkerton.

History

We had the Senior Corn Roast at Chase's

Grove. Soon we welcomed the Sophomores at the Sophomore Reception. We cheered our football team on to become state co-champions. "Class Ring" was presented for our Senior Play.

Soon the Critic Staff was chosen and everyone began scurrying around in search of material. We all smiled "pretty" for our pictures and stood erect to be measured for caps and gowns. While we strove to become known as literary geniuses through out senior essays, time sped quickly and soon commencement week arrived.

The thought-evoking sermon at Baccalaureate, the boisterous fun of the Senior Howl, the pseudo-gayety of Class Day, and, finally, the solemn splendor of Graduation brought a climax to all the wonderful memories we had made at Pinkerton.

P.A. 59

Some of our happiest moments at P.A. are recalled in the numerous activities in which we have participated. Sports, dances, clubs, dramatics—these are but a few of the many we have enjoyed. The memories of these activities are among those which will not soon be forgotten.

Lettermen Increase Duties

S. Saloma, Vice President; R. Plant, President; R. Hilliard, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Lettermen's Association has been very active this past year carrying out our many duties.

Our main function has been to cooperate with Mr. Hackler and the members of the faculty. We also officiated at many of the interclass games and helped out at the new cafeteria.

We sincerely wish to thank Mr. Root for the time he has given to our group this year. We have been very proud of our school achievements and the Lettermen's Association has given us the opportunity to display this pride.

Active participation in school activities has given this group of girls the privilege of wearing a Pinkerton letter and the right to belong to the Letterwomen's Association. The Letterwomen perform numerous tasks such as hall, chapel and basement duty and keeping order in general. The girls are leaders at the Academy and are proud to serve the student body.

This year the Letterwomen sold many colorful red and white banners and beanies during the football season. They also held a Sadie Hawkins dance to celebrate our being named 1958 State Co-Champions in football.

Sue Riddervold, President; Thelma Eaton, Vice-President; Sara DePalmenary, Secretary-Treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, composed of three members of each class, forms one of the self-governing groups at the Academy. The Council sponsors victory dances and other social and special events. Regular meetings are held with Principal Hackler to discuss school problems. The special project of the Council this year has been selling Pinkerton book covers.

H. Morin, Treasurer; R. Beliveau, President; C. Boisse, Vice-President; L. Audette, Secretary.

SCIENCE AND CAMERA CLUBS

The Science Club is a newly organized club at Pinkerton Academy under the supervision of Mr. Collier, our new science teacher.

By having monthly meetings, doing projects and going on interesting field trips, the members have become interested in science and have a much better understanding of the subject.

The camera club has had a very successful year. The large membership shows the interest the students have in photography.

Under the guidance of Mr. Perry, we have learned the fundamentals of developing and printing pictures. The members made their own Christmas cards and to everyone's relief they came out satisfactorily.

CHAPEL CHOIR

At Pinkerton there is, also, a smaller singing group known as the Chapel Choir. The Choir consists of 45 voices and is devoted exclusively to the singing of a cappella music.

This year the Choir, for the most part, has worked in close association with the Glee Club and has participated in the same programs. It has, however, added one new task, and that is helping the student body in singing the hymns during Chapel exercises.

Harmony

Singing is a wholesome part of any school's extra-curricular activities and so it is at Pinkerton.

The 90 member Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Fred W. Hilse, has accomplished much in the way of musical presentations this year.

Christmas and Spring Concerts have been given at school. Away from school the group took part in a special Christmas program broadcast by WMUR-TV in Manchester. They have also entertained at various local organizations.

MEMORIES

"This year's Critic is going to be the best ever." That was our motto as we eagerly anticipated the first meeting of our newly appointed Literary Staff that afternoon in early October.

With everyone bubbling over with the enthusiasm of many new and original ideas, it was not long before we were able to put our energies to work, gathering material, discussing layouts, and working hard at writing and revising our various written assignments.

Through all this, we had one goal in mind and that was to make our yearbook as interesting and enjoyable as possible.

We, of the Critic Staff, sincerely hope that in compiling our yearbook, we have succeeded in helping our readers recapture many of the outstanding events and memorable moments of our three years at P.A.

A part of the dozen

CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN

Our Junior Play was our first attempt at acting at P. A. With the assistance of Miss Abbott, we presented the wonderful, heart warming comedy, "Cheaper by the Dozen." Although we didn't have the full dozen, the action was fast and furious. The play was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. We are sure that this play will be long remembered at P. A.

Now be good while I'm away.

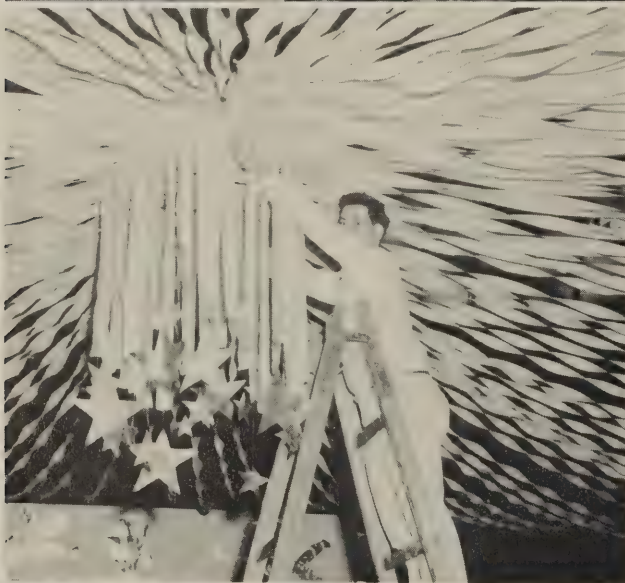

Although misfortunes came our way in many forms, our Senior Play, CLASS RING, was a great success. Will we ever forget our famous courtroom scene that didn't appear in the play? A power failure the night of the dress rehearsal forced us to hold it in the Derry Municipal courtroom aided by flashlights. However, when the curtain was raised and the first lines were spoken, we knew that our worries were over. Under Miss Abbott's capable direction, we had produced our second hit.

We Danced to

GENIUSES AT WORK

It was fascination, we know, as we danced on and on at our Junior Prom.

The Committees carefully planned every detail for the Prom so that our dreams and expectations would be fulfilled. What a thrill it was to have the chapel doors closed while our visions became realities in silver and blue with "Fascination" as our theme. Music was supplied by Johnny Gillespie's Orchestra.

All too soon the night of February fourteenth had come and gone, leaving behind beautiful memories.

JUNIORS

After performing the traditional duty — that of initiating the Sophomores — the Juniors had the excitement of ordering class rings and of putting on their Prom. Later they tried their hand at acting by struggling through Declamations and presenting their first play. When June finally arrived, they eagerly looked forward to their Senior year when they would enjoy the privileges reserved for the Seniors.

SOPHOMORES

When the Sophomores arrived in September, it was evident that P. A. with all its traditions, was something entirely new and different to them. After being initiated by the Juniors, the "babies" as they were called, were officially welcomed to P. A. by the Seniors at the Sophomore Reception. Later in the year they chose their class colors and were proud when their banner was hung in the Chapel. The Sophomores soon busied themselves with the many activities of Pinkerton. In June they looked forward to the fun awaiting them in their Junior year and to the privilege of being called upperclassmen.

Although not all of us had the opportunity to play on varsity and junior varsity teams we were, nevertheless, ready to give our support by cheering our teams to victory. The spirit of good sportsmanship has helped to make the memories of the sports of our school unforgettable ones.

Co-Champion Football Team

Coach Root and Captain Beliveau

Sixty boys reported for the opening practice of the season, and Coach Root, with the help of Mr. Riddervold, began to whip them into shape.

The team worked hard and was ready for the first game with Sanborn, winning 18-0.

Then came the big game. The team was out to make up for last year's loss to Exeter. The game ended with Exeter inside our twenty yard line, but Pinkerton won 19-14.

We lost to Manchester West 16-12 although we scored two touchdowns in the last half. The next week in the midst of a steady rain on a cold, soggy field, we lost to Woodbury 28-0.

The team left for Somersworth realizing that a win would guarantee a tie with Exeter for the division championship. Everyone played a great game as Pinkerton won 28-6.

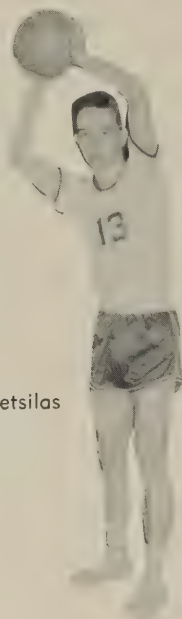

We ended the season as Co-Champions of Division III. It was a wonderful way to end three years of football.

...Basket

Pinkerton ended the regular season with a record of nine wins and five losses.

Almost all of the games were thrillers. Perhaps the most exciting games were the 60-59 upset over Hampton and the game with Somersworth when Pinkerton won by outscoring the opponents 10 to 2 in the over-time.

The last game was a 69-59 loss to Charlestown in the tournament play-offs.

Coach Perry had rebuilt his team around juniors and sophomores, with Roger Beliveau the only senior to draw a starting assignment. The starting five were all capable of scoring twenty points per man and all came within a few points of this at some time during the season. Bruce Misiaszek took the honors as the team's high scorer.

Mr. Jacques replaced Mr. Riddervold as Junior Varsity coach and did an excellent job. The Junior Varsity put together an impressive season and showed great promise.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

"Get those rebounds!" "Jump for that ball." These and similar cries became more and more familiar to us as girls' basketball got under way. Under the direction of Coach LaCouture and Captain Sue Riddervold, we looked forward to a season of twelve games, an increase of four games over previous years.

We played hard and although we didn't win all of our games, we felt rewarded for our practice. All games were characterized by a spirit of fun, competition and good sportsmanship, which was felt keenly by both our team and our opponents.

CHEERLEADERS

Rah! Rah! for P. A.

Bright red uniforms and snowy-white accessories! These are the trademarks of Pinkerton's fine group of cheerleaders. None will ever forget their opening cheer at every game: "Chee! Cha! Rah! Rah!"

On crisp, fall Saturdays they cheered our football team on to a State Co-Championship. Every Friday afternoon Pep Rallies were held with the cheerleaders participating.

During the basketball season, the cheerleaders introduced several new cheers. The J. V. Cheerleaders also had a chance to demonstrate their skill at our home games.

Whether J. V. or Varsity, each girl will always remember the feeling of excitement and pride she had while cheering Pinkerton's teams on to victory.

TOUCH FOOTBALL TEAM

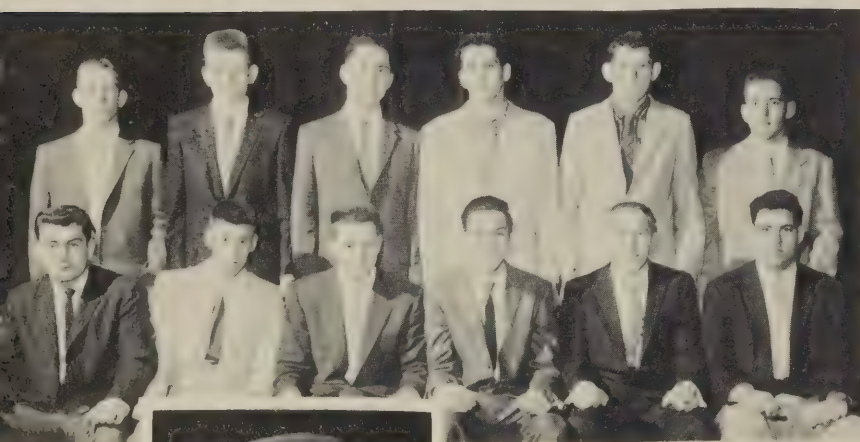

Salvatore Genualdo, Captain

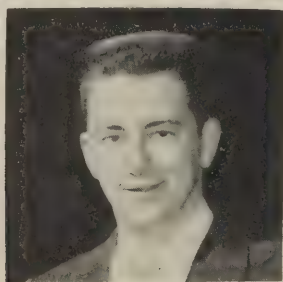

Touch football, the most vigorous of the intramural sports at Pinkerton, is played during the noon activity period. Mr. Jacques acted as referee and kept score. The Seniors under the leadership of their captain, Sal Genualdo, won the trophy.

Under the leadership of Mr. Knowles, the three classes fought it out for the volleyball trophy which the Seniors won once again.

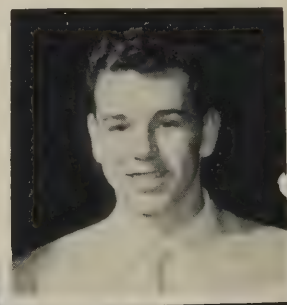

Soccer, a new sport at Pinkerton, was enjoyed by the boys after school. Mr. Jacques and Mr. Collier coached the boys.

Competitive Spirit

FIELD HOCKEY TEAM

Cynthia Sawyer, Captain

The softball games, which are played at noon, are both fun and important. Each class wants to be the school champs. When we look back on them, the incidents that were so serious, now are humorous. We remember fondly the balls that we didn't catch or the bases that we couldn't find. Our captain, Dixanne Root, helped us to keep alive the competitive spirit of each game so that we have one more good memory of our years at Pinkerton.

In the fall the senior girls eagerly reported for field hockey. We were determined to win the trophy and our determination paid off when we became the school champs. The games were never dull for no one could forget the fact that the shin guards didn't protect the knees, arms, or heads. The juniors and the sophomores were fine competition making us all the more proud knowing that the trophy was not easily won.
